The Putter's Ponder

"These things I have spoken to you, so that in Me you may have peace.

In the world you have tribulation but take courage; I have overcome the world." -John 16:33

This world is harsh yet beautiful, devastating yet breathtaking, and depending on your current moment right now, the perspective can be very different. In this God created world, those inside and outside of Christianity experience those contrasting things. Both the Christian and the Non-Christian are taken aback by a glimpse of the Grand Canyon. Both Christian and Non-Christian are taken aback by the prognosis of cancer, or sudden death of a loved one. In a world that is dealing with the ramifications of sin, all people are in the middle of quite a mess. In that mess the Christian has access 24/7 to the Peace of God that is beyond our understanding. (Phil 4:7) The peace that is beyond comprehension through the storms of life. The Valley of the Shadow of death is another way to put the storms of life, and in Psalm 23 the believer says "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. So, ponder this, where are you right now? Are your requests for peace found in temporary things, things that cover where you are right now, but then fall short. Like taking a pain medication to remove the pain, and for a moment it does, but then it wears off. So you take more, and more, and it works less effectively. Come to Christ my friend, cast your burdens at the feet of the Lord. Cast your sin at the feet of the one who gave Himself for that very sin, whose payment is more effective than all of what you have done and will ever do. The very need for a savior is evident in the fallen world we live in, don't look around at the need and reject the offer that is given!

Mom was worried about my trip to the Grand Canyon, I sent her this picture.
